Yesterday, To-day and To-morrow.

By MORTIMER COLLINS.

They loved and laughed, they kissed and chaffed, They threw the happy hours away; That's the way the world goes around-That's the story of Yesterday.

They talk of fate, and calculate, And keep accounts, and measure, and weigh ; That's the way the world goes around-That's the story of To-day.

They'll see on high in yonder sky The God whose power destroyeth sorrow; That's the way the world goes around-That's the story of To-morrow.

VARIETY.

We pass through this world but once. Any good thing, therefore, that we can do, and any indness we can show to our fellow-beings, let us do it now. Let us not defer or neglect it, for we shall not pass this way again.

Claiborne Jackson, once Governor of Missouri, married five sisters. When he went to ask for the last one his father-in-law said, " Yes, Claib, You may have her. You have had 'em all. For goodness sake, don't ask me for the old woman!"

A religious old lady, when asked her opinion of a church organ, the first time she had seen heard one, said: "It's a vera bonny kist o' whistles; but oh, sirs, it's an awfu' way spending the Sabbath day.

Here are definitions of Faith, Hope and Love ; re they not worth remembering? " To look up, and not down ; To look forward, and not back; To look out, and not in; and To lend a hand."

The Fenian movement has broken out again. Philadelphia perfumer has just put upon the arket a new kind of pomade, which is said to the strongest head-scenter that has yet been brought out.

Mr. Longfellow once received an epistle, requesting him to compose an acrostic, the first MPORTERS AND DEALERS IN HARDetters of which should spell "My sweet girl." The applicant added : " Write as if it were some eautiful girl with whom you were in love— ust as if it were yourself." At the foot of the etter were the words. "Send bill."

The Norwich Bulletin rises to the remark that the growing custom of putting the choir at the pulpit end of the church has the very serious drawback that it prevent a man from turning around and looking up at the organ in a critical manner just before the contribution box approaches his pew.

eynical person explains: " People do not look with that awe and veneration on public men that they did in Clay's and Webster's days, because the infernal newspapers are constantly prying into and publishing their weaknesses, and people have come to think that a great man is a very little thing, and very much like ordi-

Burlington Hawkeye: A medium in Wisconsin ecently had a long interview with the late President Lincoln, in the course of which Mr. Lincoln stated positively that he knew Tilden was fairly elected. That always was the way with Mr. Lincoln when he was alive : never a bit particular about who he talked to, and always full of his jokes.

Boston Advertiser: " Mamma," said a little ive-year-old, " what is a window and what is a lower.?" The mother explained to the little fellow, and, by way of further explanation, said: "If you should grow up and get married, and your wife should die, why, then you would be a widower." "Oh no; I wouldn't," says the little fellow. "I'd court another. little fellow, "I'd court another girl. Fact. It occurred in New Bedford.

Austin Reveille : In a Main-street saloon, last brening, we overheard a miner telling one of his briends that his wages had an ornament on them. How's that?" asked the friend. " Well, you see," replied the miner, "a fellow I owned a little money to put a garnishment on my wages, and I looked in the dictionary and found that the definition of a garnishment is an ornament or ornamentation.'

New York Commercial Advertiser : If old Noah, from the summit of Mt. Ararat, could have looked out upon the future and seen his semote descendants mowing each other down with grape and sabre on the plains below, he might have been tempted to throw away the olive branch that the dove brought him, lock the doors of the ark on the inside, sling away the key, and tell his family that they might etter all stay in there and starve to death to-

"I met a Highlander," said Sir Daniel acree, " who had settled the question of Sabbath-breaking at a very fine point. I was fishing on a Scotch loch with a party. Among our visions was a ham. On Sunday I asked the provisions was a nam. On Sunday I asked the inn-keeper to cut it in two one-half for boiling, to carry with us, the other for grilling, to eat in-doors. Jamie produced a knife, but then bethought himself that a knife would not cut through the bone. 'Have you not got a saw?"
'Aye?,' he replied, 'but dinna ye kin it's the bhath? I would na like to use a saw on the Sabbath!' "

The Boston Post has the hardihood to print his: An honorable gentleman, formerly a memher of Congress from the State of Maine, writes to us as follows : "I have no prejudices to prevent my favoring any new scheme which would work an improvement on the existing system taxation, which in practice in this State has come a contemptible farce. If any thing in is world is calculated to make one believe in tal depravity it is the selfishness, meanness, twistings, turnings, equivocation and lies a New Zealand Yankee with reference to his ies, even though he may have passed through strainer of Orthodox, Baptist or Methodist povival."

WOMAN'S CURIOSITY .- A man was yesterday shing a lawnroller around a yard on Woodward Avenue, when an old lady came along, caned up against the fence and watched him for a while, and then called out : Say, Master, what are you pushing that around for ?" "To roll the lawn he answered. "What do want to roll the lawn for?"

"To make it level." "What do you want to make it leval for?" e continued.

"That's what I was ordered to do," he ansered, as he wiped away the perspiration. "But what did they order you to do it for?"

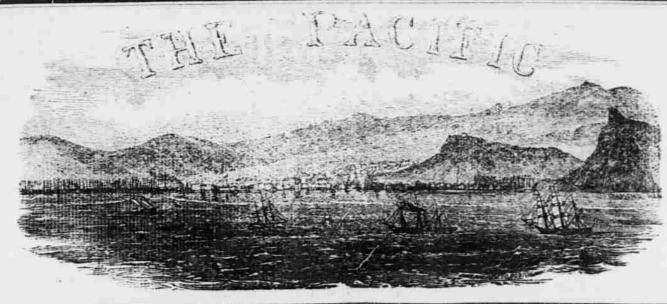

Why they think a smooth lawn looks the est, I suppose.' "Why, do you think a smooth lawn looks the st?" she persisted. "I haven't time to talk," he said, as he tarted up again.

"Why haven't you time to talk?" she "Go'n ask the boss !" he yelled.

"Why shall I go'n ask the boss?" she He disappeared behind the house to get rid f her, and after waiting five minutes for him reappear she slowly sauntered off, muttering : Some folks are so smart and stuck up that a can't get within a mile of 'em onless you

aze all over with diamonds."
